North Valley Career & Technology Center is looking for two talented and motivated full time Agricultural Education Instructors (one in Cavalier and one in Grafton) to be part of a five-person regional Agricultural Education Program for the 2024-25 school year. The schedule is built to fill six instructional periods and have one prep period. The instructional periods are flexible and can be in any Agricultural Education area the teacher is highly qualified to teach in ND. This position is under the general supervision of the Center Director. Position also requires being an advisor for the FFA Chapter.

NVCTC is a regional center, which serves the districts of Cavalier, Drayton, Fordville, Grafton, Midway, Minto, Park River Area, and Valley-Edinburg. Regional information found at <https://realgoodnd.com>.

This position is open until filled. An applicant's file must contain:

- A formal letter of application
- Resume
- Transcripts from institutions where bachelors, masters, or doctorate degree was earned
- Two letters of recommendation
